

Imagining the City:

Urban Transformation, Identity and Placemaking 1800-2017

16 May 2017, Odense City Museums

9.30-9.45: Welcome

9.45-10.30: Rebecca Madgin (Univ. of Glasgow):
Unlocking the Experiential and Emotional Values of Urban Heritage

10.30-10.45: Coffee

10.45-11.30: Svava Riesto (Univ. of Copenhagen):
Contested Heritage: Making Futures for the landscapes of the Welfare State

11.30-12.15: Martin Zerlang (Univ. of Copenhagen):
*On the interplay between Literature and Architecture
in Recent Danish Architectural Projects*

12.15-13.15: Lunch

13.15-14.00: Anneleen Arnout (Radboud Univ.):
The Sensitive City: Emotions and Urban Space in Amsterdam, Paris and London, 1850-1930

14.00-14.45: Mikkel Høghøj (Aarhus Univ.):
*Mutating Geographies of 'Welfare': The Gellerup Plan
from Urban Utopia to Dystopia*

14.45-15.00: Coffee

15.00-15.20: Camilla Schjerning (Odense City Museums):
An Ancient and Industrious City: Visual and Sensuous Geographies of a Provincial Town, 1800-1930

15.20-15.40: Sissel Bjerrum Fossat (Odense City Museums):
*The Bad City and the Good Urban Plan: Politicizing
Urban Transformation in Odense*

15.40-16.00: Closing discussion

16.00: Drinks

Venue:

Kirkosalen, Møntergården.
Overgade 48, 5000 Odense C.

Registration:

Participation is free of charge.
There is a limited number of seats,
so we urge you to register early and no later than 8th May.
Please write to Camilla Schjerning:
caps@odense.dk

Organizers:

Odense Bys Museer,
Dansk Komité for Byhistorie

